06 Investor information & conclusions

- Instrument held: 12% perpetual AT1 note EE3300003581 (August 2023 series), issued 2023-08-31, EUR 5.08m, quarterly coupon; unlisted (private placement)[6].
- Terms: callable no earlier than 5 years after issue (first interest date after that is 2028-09-15, own calculation), with supervisory approval[19]. - Conclusion: moderate risk – a profitable, growing bank with adequate capital, but an AT1 instrument and a negative Moody's outlook.

07 Market and environment

- Euribor rose: 6-month Euribor rose from about 2.6% to 3.1% in Q3; the bank links this to Middle East conflicts that pushed up energy prices and inflation, another ECB hike, and expectations of higher-for-longer rates[9].

- Costs: payroll +24% and headcount +20% (741) as everyday-banking services are launched[23].
