05 Past plans vs outcomes

PLAN / TARGET	OUTCOME	WHAT CHANGED AND WHY	STATUS
Issue senior non-preferred bonds while keeping the current A2 rating (2025 annual report)	EUR 500m SNP issued in 1H 2026; Moody's affirmed the rating[2,1]	Met: EUR 500m SNP issued at MS+1.28% while a EUR 300m senior bond at MS+4.471% was redeemed, so funding became cheaper[5].	Met
Reduce CET1 capital by EUR 200.0m (approval received 2026-07)	Planned for Q4 2026[8]	New plan: the ECB approved it on 2026-07-17. Capital is well above requirements (CET1 19.6%), so excess capital is returned[8].	In progress
Owners: Blackstone-led consortium (80.05%) and DNB (19.95%) (2025 annual report)	Sale to OTP Bank (100%) announced 2026-07-20, approvals pending[20,21]	Changed: the owners agreed to sell 100% to OTP Bank; Moody's affirmed the rating and outlook after the announcement[7].	Revised

06 Investor information & conclusions

- Instruments held: two senior preferred bonds, 4.042% 2028 (issuer call at par 2027-09-10) and 3.551% 2029 (call 2028-06-12), and a 7.375% perpetual bond[22,23,24]. The 7.75% 2027 bond XS2633112565 had a call date of 2026-06-08 and Luminor redeemed this EUR 300m bond in 1H 2026, so it is no longer outstanding[4,5].
- For bondholders: capital and MREL buffers are well above requirements and liquidity has increased. The EUR 200m CET1 reduction will lower the buffer; the bank does not state the impact on the CET1 ratio in the sources[5].

- OTP deal: Moody's kept the rating and outlook after the announcement, so there is no rating impact so far[1]. Both held senior bonds can be called by the issuer at par, in 2027 and 2028[22,23].
- Conclusion: profitability is declining (1H profit −21%), but capital, MREL and liquidity have large buffers. The key event for holders is the change of owner to OTP. Watch: 3Q report, OTP deal approvals, the Q4 capital reduction.

07 Market and environment

- Rates and competition: net interest income +1.6% to EUR 111.2m on higher balances and deposit spreads as reference rates rose, offset by lower lending spreads due to competition; NIM 2.75% (2.95%)[3].
- Costs: expenses +3.2% to EUR 90.5m, of which migration costs EUR 20.3m; personnel costs +16.6% from insourcing and hiring developers[3]. Most sector-specific taxes lapsed[3].
- Outlook: management sees a positive outlook for the Baltics and plans a EUR 200m CET1 capital reduction in Q4[25].
